Sometimes, Universities will grant early admission based on your Grade 11 grades.

Some Universities will ask you to complete a Personal Profile or Supplementary Application Form. Pay special attention to Deadlines.

SCHOLARSHIPS AND FINANCIAL INFORMATION

Entrance Scholarships are automatic scholarships based on your final grade average.

You do not apply for the Entrance Scholarship.

All Universities have specific Scholarships (e.g. President's or Chancellor's) that will require a separate application form and other information. This information will be on the school's Scholarship Website.

Scholarships (not related to an individual University) such as Wendy's, TD Trust, Loran require separate application forms. Information regarding these types of scholarships can be found at the following websites:

www.studentawards.com

www.scholarshipscanada.com

University Bursaries are specific to each University and Program. You must be attending the University in order to apply.

OSAP (Ontario Student Assistance Program)- You can apply for OSAP as soon as you have been accepted your offer of admission, We will have a Financial Seminar in the Spring of Semester Two. The OSAP Application form should be completed on line:
